

Conference Theme:

“NIR IN ACTION: IT MAKES ECONOMIC CENTS”

Given the global financial crisis, are Australian industries using NIR to their best advantage?

What are the costs and benefits?

Can we afford NOT to use NIR?

Organising Committee for the 14th
ANISG Conference:

Sophie Roumeliotis
Daniel Cozzolino
Catherine Margach
Michelle Williams
Peter Flinn
Tony Blakeney
Graeme Batten

FOR ALL INFORMATION,
UPDATES AND DEADLINES:

www.anisg.com.au

If you are not yet included on the ANISG mailing list, contact:

Prof. Graeme Batten
Secretary, ANISG
PO Box 487
WOOLGOOLGA NSW 2456
Phone: 02 6656 2288
E-mail: thebattens@bigpond.com

Australian Near Infrared Spectroscopy Group

14th AUSTRALIAN
NEAR INFRARED
SPECTROSCOPY CONFERENCE

18th – 21st April 2010

ADELAIDE, SA

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

Conference Venue:

National Wine Centre of Australia

Corner Botanic and Hackney Roads,
Adelaide SA 5000

Website:

www.wineaustralia.com.au

An appropriate venue for our conference in one of Australia's major wine-producing States!

Conference Format:

- Short Course:
“Spectroscopy for Real Applications” conducted by Woody Barton & Jim De Haseth (Sunday & Monday 18th -19th April)
- Conference (Tuesday & Wednesday 20th-21st April)
- Includes special session on economic aspects of NIR
- Oral and poster presentations invited on all aspects of NIR

Other Features:

- Company Corner & Happy Hour (Tuesday 20th)
- Conference Dinner (Tuesday 20th)
- Informal Dinner for Course Participants (Sunday 18th)
- Kaji Competition (chemometrics)
- Lynsey Welsh Award
- Poster Prizes
- Student Awards